FAMILY BEGINNINGS

(I) Johannes Ullrich Hirschi was a resident of the Canton Neuenberg (also called Neuchâtel, Switzerland) all his years. He was married to Mary Josli. About 1829 he died, leaving six children:

- (II) Johannes Ullrich
- (II) Christian
- (II) Mathias
- (II) Maria
- (II) Philip
- (II) Abraham

(II) Johannes Ulrich married but left no children.
 (II) Christian, (II) Mathias and (II) Maria never married.
 (II) Philip and (Abraham) alone lived to perpetuate the family name. These six, who constitute the second generation, all lived and died in Switzerland. Of (II) Abraham's descendants nothing is known to us. Therefore, (II) Philip is the central starting point of the generations here recorded.

(II) Philip Hirschi was born in Canton Neuenberg, Switzerland, about 1790. In about 1820 he married Anna, daughter of Johannes Frey. They lived in La Chaux de Fonds. In their religious belief they were Amish Mennonites of which church they were members. In the winter of 1850, at the age of about forty years, (II) Philip died, leaving a family of seven children:

- (III) John
- (III) Anna
- (III) Philip
- (III) Lewis
- (III) Maryann or Marianna
- (III) Maria
- (III) Rosina

All of these lived to have homes and families of their own. About 1855 (II) Mrs. Philip Hirschi married Christian Horn, who had been a farm laborer at their farm since before the death of her husband.

In 1855 the Christian Horn family came to live on a farm near Strassburg---now Mexico---Ohio.
